English

- To explore Greek myths and legends
- To compare and contrast stories.
- To explore the features of a recount
- To participate in an Ancient Greek WOW Day!
- To write a recount of Greek Day.
- To use conjunctions at the start or in the middle of sentences to join clauses.
- To use fronted adverbials to open recount sentences.

History – Ancient Greeks

- To undertake an in depth study of The Ancient Greeks.
- To compare and evaluate sources of information
- To make comparisons between the past and the present.
- To create a timeline to show significant events in history
- To study people of historical significance from Ancient Greece

RE:

- To discuss the meaning of truth
- To develop an understanding of axiom
- To recognise that there is diversity among different religions
- To identify Christian symbols related to Christmas

Maths

- Subtract two 4-digit numbers with exchanges
- To use formal methods for subtraction
- To use known facts to estimate
- To calculate area by counting squares
- To compare area of shapes
- To explore multiplication and divisibility facts of the times tables
- To multiply by 1 and 100
- To divide by 1 and itself

Year 4

Autumn Term 2

Ancient Greeks

French

- To tell the time
- To talk about leisure activities
- To discuss timetabled activities
- To extend vocabulary related to activities

P.E

- To understand how my body moves and how it makes me feel
- To develop dance skills, moving rhythmically.
- To work towards dance drama based on a Greek Myth.
- To combine movement ideas fluently and effectively
- To perform and evaluate an Ancient Greek inspired dance.

Science

Children will learn:

- About parts of the digestive system and how it works
- About the different types of teeth and their purpose
- To plan and conduct an investigative enquiry
- To conclude results from an investigation
- To identify healthy food and drink

Art

- To explore Greek pottery and create a Greek inspired vase with traditional decoration
- To use small tiles to produce a Greek mosaic

PSHE

- Understand that we can make choices which lead to a healthy lifestyle
- Explore the relationship between physical activity and nutrition
- Explore the benefits of regular exercise on the body
- Awareness of factors which influence our food choices